Fete Closes Sunday With Vine At Peak

Visitors Welcome Next Week As Wistaria Ignores Calendar Shutdown

Sunday evening the Wistaria Fete closes, until next Spring when old mother nature again will touch the giant vine with her magic wand. The colorful spectacle closes with the wistaria bloom as gorgeous as at any time in history, and this final weekend is expected to attract a capacity crowd of visitors to the Fennel estate.

Those fortunate enough to be present last Sunday afternoon at the Wistaria, were treated to the sight of fifteen or more Japanese girls, clad in traditional gay silk costumes, presenting native dances on the front lawn. The girls were members of the Sierra Madre Japanese Society.

One of the events of the weekend was Sid Grauman's visit to the fete. For a number of years the famous showman has made it his annual custom to drive here during the festival season, as he has told firemen attendants that he considers the vine one of Southern California's most wonderful sights.

STATE AWARD GOES TO LOCAL GIRL VIOLINIST

Miss Elizabeth Morgridge, talented young Sierra Madre violinist, received further recognition this week when she was awarded first place in the student violinist class both in the Southern California and the State auditions held in the Hollywood Woman's Club. The competition was held by the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Compositions prescribed for the contestants were the Bach Sonata No. 4 and Wieniawski Concerto in D Minor. Miss Morgridge also played the John Alder Carpenter Sonata, as her optional modern number. She was congratulated by the judges on her excellent performance, and assured that she had a brilliant future in music. Judges' decisions were based on high artistic and technical standards.

Cash Realty Deal In City Points To New Prosperity

The first cash sale involving downtown real estate to take place here in a number of years was completed this week as Mrs. Ada Oswald, local property owner and former real estate agent with Thomas Neale, purchased the three North Baldwin avenue business lots from W. J. Strickland.

Including the property on which is located the Sierra Madre Feed and Fuel store, formerly operated by Mr. Strickland, Elly's Hardware, and the Coffee Shop, the lots measure 150 by 60 feet. Mrs. Oswald's purchase is stated to be strictly an investment, as she is considering no building alterations at present.

D. M. Gilmore Buys Taxi Concession

D. M. Gilmore, who is known to a great number of Sierra Madreans through his connection with the local Ice Company during the past 12 years, took over the operation of the Sierra Madre Taxi company Wednesday from Russell Lovejoy.

Planning to operate the taxi on a basis of the slogan "Anywhere-Anytime," Gilmore has purchased a new car. He will make his headquarters at Sierra News headquarters at the Sierra News Stand, Phone 246-2, or may be reached at the regular taxi service number, 301.

School Polls Open Today But Hartman Lacks Opposition

Rudolph Hartman will be the only name to appear on the ballot today as Sierra Madre goes to the special public school election to choose one member to the school board. Only a small turnout is expected, as Mr. Hartman has no opposition for reelection to his post and the votes given him will be primarily votes of confidence. The term of office is for three years, and the polling place at the grammar school will be open between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. today.

The officers appointed to conduct the election are Mrs. Elva M. Reavis, inspector; Mrs. Hazel L. Spoelstra and Mrs. Martha Loreen Adwell, judges.

Death Comes To Aged Vet At Home Here

Henry Schaser, Pioneer Resident, Indian Fighter, Is Mourned By Friends

Henry Schaser, 90 year old veteran of the days of frontier Indian fighting and the Civil War and for 23 years a resident of Sierra Madre, died at his home at 715 Alegria avenue Sunday. According to police records he took his own life by stabbing himself with a jackknife. He has been despondent over failing health for some months.

Coming to California in the '70s, Mr. Schaser took part in many of the pioneering developments of Southern California. He was a Christian Science practitioner for the past 45 years, bringing solace and comfort to the many who came to him for aid. All of his Sierra Madre friends, including Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard, pastor of the Congregational Church, spoke of him highly as a quiet spoken, kindly man who had lived a full and unselfish life.

Mr. Schaser's funeral was held at the Pasadena Mausoleum Monday, and H. B. Ayers read the Christian Science service. Grant Funeral Parlors were in charge of arrangements. Born in Prescott, Minnesota in 1845, Mr. Schaser is survived only by his widow, Mrs. Henry Schaser.

American Academy Of Art Honors Three Local Residents

On Thursday night at 8 o'clock, April 4th, at the Hotel Knickerbocker in Hollywood the works of Herman Livezey will be on the program of poetry given by Mr. Bennett. Lee Shippey is named Regent of Poetry in the Academy and Mr. Bennett gave the poetry of Edith Hart Dunne of Baldwin avenue on his broadcast of March 20, and also gave her poetry on his last Thursday night program of poetry readings at the Hotel Knickerbocker. Mr. Bennett has given Mr. Livezey three readings on the air.

Mr. Livezey, who resides on Mira Monte avenue, is preparing a book of unpublished manuscripts and letters of Walt Whitman for University of Pennsylvania Press. Mr. Livezey was curator of the Walt Whitman House at Camden, New Jersey, for five years after being graduated from the University of Pennsylvania, and is considered something of an authority on Whitman.

A number of Sierra Madre people motored to Hollywood for the last reading and parties are being planned for the affair Thursday evening.

Committee Hands Out Work Leads In Housing Campaign

Leads for contracting work under the Federal Housing Program may be secured Wednesday evenings at the City Hall, from 7:15 to 8 o'clock, according to John S. Billheimer, chairman of the better housing committee here.

Applications should be made in advance to Mrs. Grace B. Caukin, secretary of the consulting committee.

Hoover Takes Over Scout Leadership

Former President's Son Elected Chairman Of Local Central Committee

Herbert Hoover, Jr., son of the former President, has been elected chairman of the Sierra Madre central executive committee of the Boy Scouts, and at Tuesday night's meeting in the City Hall he was present to accept his post.

"I appreciate the opportunity for service in such a useful and important work as is being done by the Boy Scout movement," Mr. Hoover said. "If we continue to have the whole hearted cooperation of everyone in Sierra Madre interested in youth's progress I am sure Scouting will advance as it rightly should."

Colonel H. B. Hersey, prominent member of the committee, welcomed Mr. Hoover and introduced him to the scouting officials present. He also expressed the entire organization's regrets that Capt. E. G. Everett found it necessary to retire from his position as chairman, where he has been so helpful in the past months.

A comic sidelight was thrown on the meeting when Mr. Hoover took opportunity to "apologize" for the antics of his St. Bernard dog, which caused so much humorous confusion when it temporarily "moved in" the grammar school last year.

"I hope," Mr. Hoover grinned, "that the incident has been forgotten."

Announcement was made of the Scout Court of Honor, to be held in St. Rita's auditorium, Monday evening, April 8. The ceremonies will be arranged by Stanley Fish, Court of Honor Director for the city. Dates for the Bailey Canyon Camporee were set for April 15 and 16.

Staggering Relief Load May Force An Increase In Taxes

Charity costs in Los Angeles County have increased almost four fold in the past 10 years. The per capita cost for charity during 1933-34 was $15.83, as compared to a per capita cost of $4.28 in 1924-25, according to County Auditor H. A. Payne.

During the recent fiscal year 73-percent of all the money spent by the Board of Supervisors went for charitable purposes—the charity burden totalling the tremendous sum of $36,317,459.

But despite this drain being put on the revenues of the county, Supervisor Herbert C. Legg states that every facility of government research will be utilized by the Board to wipe out waste and overlapping services in order to hold down the tax rate.

"The greatly increased charities demands for the next fiscal year, coupled with the fact that reserves which were completely exhausted last year will not be available for the budget, make it almost certain that a tax increase is inevitable unless more than ordinary efforts are made to retrench," Supervisor Legg states. "Every effort is being made to persuade the State and Federal agencies to take over their rightful shares of the county relief load."

County Campaign To Teach Value Of Forest In Schools

A vigorous crusade designed to impress on children of school age the great importance of forest conservation and perpetuation of mountain playgrounds was instituted yesterday by the County Department of Recreation Camps and Playgrounds. Representatives of 15 organizations interested in conservation work, including the Boy Scouts, resort owners' associations, planning commissions and the Board of Supervisors, were present at a meeting held in Los Angeles.

Information will be spread by furnishing speakers at school assemblies, and by enlisting all school children to pledge observance of forest rules. It was pointed out that if the present rate of destruction is continued another 20 years will witness the complete devastation of the recreation area in Los Angeles County. For this reason immediate action is required, and the education can best be started with the children on whom future responsibility will fall.

L A County Joins In Fight Against Power Line Route

Declaring itself unreservedly back of the San Gabriel Valley Defense League in the fight against the Metropolitan Water District proposed power line routing, the Board of Supervisors has passed resolutions protesting the project. Supervisor Legg, heading the action, states in no uncertain terms that he personally will do all in his power to see that the high voltage line is erected on the alternate location lower in the valley.

Legg cites a warning by County Forester Spence D. Turner, who has stated that the power line would be a constant fire menace, liable at any time to cause a repetition of the La-Crescenta fire.

Claremont College also recently registered protest, as John A. Blaisdell, president, publicly declared that the foothill routing of the line would be detrimental to the interests of all county taxpayers.

Crowd To See Bible Drama Sunday Night

Original Play By Mae Warren Hicks Sponsored By Local Church

Prince Stephen, The Rich Young Ruler, an impressive and spectacular Biblical drama in three acts, written and directed by Mrs. Mae Warren Hicks, mother of Mrs. Waverly E. Pratt will be given at the Sierra Madre School Auditorium Sunday evening, March 31st at 7:30.

This drama is being sponsored by the Congregational church. The story is from an incident in the life of Jesus before the Crucifixion and the Resurrection. The action takes place in the tropical garden of the outer court yard at the home of the Rich Young Ruler at Jericho. There will be an unusual stage setting and beautiful authentic costumes.

Robert L. Warren will portray the character of Prince Stephen, and Mrs. Waverly E. Pratt, well known throughout Southern California as a talented recitalist, will play Princess Eleasa, wife of the Rich Young Ruler.

At the end of the first scene a rhythmic interpretation of an ancient Hebrew religious dance will be given.

The premiere production of this drama was given in the Long Beach Civic Auditorium and was sponsored by the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Hicks has written and produced many plays and Pageants for numerous large organizations. The public is invited. A silver offering will be taken.

Organize Mothers Interested In Pre-School Education

A meeting of mothers, interested in pre-school education for their children, will be held next Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Raymond D. Andrews, 692 West Central avenue. The objectives of the meeting are to organize a study group of parents interested in the young child's development, and to discuss plans for the establishment of a play school for children below the kindergarten age.

Mrs. Andrews, who will direct the play school, is a graduate of the University at Berkeley, a teacher of experience, and the mother of three children. She has made a special study of the pre-child's interest and activities, doing graduate work at the University and has been a student of Dr. R. Wescott Weiman for several years, as well as having had training as a nurse.

All mothers interested in a study of the young child or in a play school for their children, are cordially invited.

Observations

By Lee Shippey
SPRING is a lovely season in Sierra Madre but it has its drawbacks. The good old devil grass we haven't had to mow all winter is demanding attention again. It isn't the song of the robin but the song of the lawnmower which officially announces spring is here.

And then as soon as the Wistaria ends we can count on pleasant weather.

Batter Up Cry Due April 12 For Soldiers

Practice Starts Soon; Legion League Chiefs Set Baseball Dates

S-p-r-i-n-g spells baseball to Sierra Madre.

At a meeting of the 18th District Legion League heads in Arcadia Thursday night, April 12 was set at the opening date for the ball season in these parts. That's stepping things ahead by some weeks, but 12 teams are expected to enter in the championship.

Notice!

Probably there will be several local ball teams organized for inter-city and foothill competition this season. It will greatly simplify matters if everyone contemplating getting a team together would get in touch with THE NEWS' sport department in the coming week. We have no way of knowing whether there are to be one or five teams on deck next month.

ship tussle this season — and that'll provide a good five or six months' excitement for the fans.

Next week the Legionnaires plan to get their sweatshirts out of the mothballs and engage in a little preliminary waistband reducing, while the powers that be struggle with the seasonal schedule. Wave Pratt, star tosser for the local soldiers, states that these semi-weekly practice sessions will be run off with more than customary gusto in preparation for the annual grudge game with Pasadena.

Storm Clouds Chased Away By Sunshine

Latest Snow Sports In Ten Years Enjoyed In Sierra Madre Back Country

For the first time in 10 years the Sierra Madre back-country was blanketed under a heavy Springtime snowstorm last Saturday night, and weekend vacationists crowded the Angeles Crest Highway and the new Big Santa Anita mountain road to enjoy the winter sport offered by the storm.

Several inches of snow transformed Sturtevant Camp into a winter wonderland of glistening white pine trees, and snow fell far down the Canyon as Fern Lodge. Eight inches of snow was recorded on Mt. Wilson, and even after a week's warm sun the north side of the range remains frozen and the deeper canyons ice coated.

Many Sierra Madreans, tempted by the sight of white capped peaks in back of the city, joined the throng of hikers and motorists which went up into the snow Sunday. At Big Pines they found a foot of snow on the level, at Lake Arrowhead and the Big Bear region nearly as much. A record number of visitors was reported on the Angeles Crest and back in the Red Box area, while several local parties were tempted by the skiing, skating and sledding facilities at Crystal Lake, north of the San Gabriel Canyon.

In the city a total of .64 inches of rain fell in the short period between about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon and midnight, bringing the seasonal precipitation up to 24.57 inches as recorded at Sierra Madre Dam. Last year at this time the fall measured but 22.19 inches.

High School Pupils Compete In Essay Housing Contest

Sierra Madre pupils of the various high schools in Pasadena, will be given an opportunity to enter the National Better Housing educational contest open to high schools in the country April 1, was the information received this week by J. S. Billheimer, local general claimant of the FHA.

The contest will be based on an essay written in speech form not to exceed six minutes to deliver orally. Two students, a boy and a girl, will be selected from each school contest. These in turn will compete in district elimination. Details, rules and regulations will be announced on the opening day of the contest and local chairmen under the Better Housing committee will cooperate with school authorities in conducting these contests.

Another Track?? Applicants Keep Race Board On Run

Those half million dollar daily handles at Santa Anita look like the pot of gold at the end of an impoverished rainbow to all of the would-be promoters in Southern California. This week the California Racing Commission received another application for a third race track in the Los Angeles area, Raoul Walsh and associates announce that they propose to build a track between the metropolitan center and the Santa Monica beaches.

Walsh, a motion picture director, is president of the new organization, which is known as the Hollywood Park Jockey Club. Walter T. McCarty of Beverly Hills is vice-president, and Garret C. Rainey is secretary-treasurer. These three, with Virginia T. Cord, wife of the automobile manufacturer, compose the board of directors. The application will come before the commission at its next meeting.

Notable Art Work Comes Here April 7

Women Painters Of West To Bring Oil Canvases To Little Gallery

By Vernon Jay Morse

Southern California women painters have shown their mettle this year in producing an excellent juried exhibition of paintings which has toured the Southland and put a new complexion on the old idea of women being dilly-dalliers with art. These pictures make an honest-to-goodness painters' show and prove that women as well as men can produce fine, strong pictures.

The Women Painters of the West as an organization, has grown to a full-fledged art-club with regular activities, annual exhibition and club-sponsored one-man (or should we say one-woman) shows.

As might be expected the Ebell Club sponsors their annual juried show and this year they have a group exhibition which is a great advance over previous years' offerings. Some outstanding names are in the catalogue and the show includes some of the best works by women painters to be seen anywhere.

Many of the artists have taken long painting trips and the High Sierra, Rocky Mountains, New Orleans and Gloucester are represented among the pictures in the group.

Sunday, March 31, is the last day to see the current water color exhibition and Tuesday the new show will be on view. A reception and tea will formally open the Women Painters' show on Sunday, April 7, at 2 p.m. Several of the exhibiting artists have promised to come to the reception and a larger attendance than last month is expected. Save the date, Sunday afternoon, April 7 at 2 o'clock.

OVER 200 PERSONS ENROLL IN ADULT EDUCATION CLASSES EMPLOYING 20 INSTRUCTORS

Writing, Art, Music, Design And Dancing Among Subjects Being Taught Here

ADULT education in Sierra Madre under the State Emergency Educational program and the County Department of Recreation has increased to such a surprising extent in the past few months that more than 200 persons are enrolled in various classes here, and nearly 20 instructors are gaining a livelihood through the program.

This information was contained in a statistical survey report just completed by Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, principal of the local grammar school.

Classes range through such a variety of subjects that it is difficult to see how a more diverse curriculum could have been conceived. Under the extensive system of instruction, one may become versed in everything from contract bridge to Chinese history, with baseball and dramatic dancing thrown in for good measure.

The latest class to be inaugurated held its first meeting in the Old Barn Studios of the municipal Art League last Wednesday night. Conducted by Russell McCarty, noted Southern California poet and writer, this course is dedicated to constructive work in short story writing and other branches of fiction. An able writer himself, being now under contract to write three volumes on G. Bode, Forum president.

Plight Of Red Cross Is Now Up To People

Relief Chapter Desperate As $100 A Month Needed To Feed Hungry

A series of benefit entertainments may be staged in the near future as one means of meeting the $100 per month budget requirements of the organization, it was decided at the annual business and executive meeting of the chapter in the City Hall Monday afternoon.

Miss Marion Vannier, chairman of the board of directors, stated that some immediate steps must be taken to increase the relief agency's income so that it may continue its work here. As the Red Cross is the only relief organization in Sierra Madre, it would be a serious thing if the chapter were forced to withdraw assistance from the many people who depend on its help for their very existence, she said.

"Few people realize the amount of work the chapter here does," Mrs. Jessica Wright, board member stated, "We take care of persons unable to work and those who fall between State and county aid. A great part of our funds go toward transferring people to and from clinics, and the Red Cross headquarters also serves as a place where people can come to tell their troubles. Miss Louise Judson, the secretary in charge of the office, has a wonderful faculty for helping people in their difficulties."

Many Sierra Madreans think that because the Red Cross went over the top in its annual roll call that there are sufficient funds to carry on the work—but this is not the case. The budget necessary to help all those in need of relief greatly exceeds our subscriptions.

Among the several plans considered at the meeting was one requesting a minimum of 50 people to pledge $1 a month toward the quota. Announcement was also made of the various chapter officers for the coming year, most of whom are holdovers from last year. They are as follows:

Mrs. Elizabeth Steinberger, Junior Red Cross; Joe Swanson, first aid; Mrs. M. D. Welsher, braille; James Heasley, life saving and swimming; Mrs. H. H. Holland, production; Mrs. Jessica Wright, publicity and disaster; Miss Louise Judson, welfare; R. O. Caukin, home service; George P. Rikeman, finance; Mrs. C. E. Allen, home hygiene, Herbert Ingraham, auditor.

Woman's Club Will Hold Flower Show

Mrs. O. B. Manchester gave one of her interesting book review programs on Wednesday at the Sierra Madre Woman's Club. May 1 has been the date set for the annual flower show of the club, it was announced at this meeting. Everyone having potted plants to donate are asked to watch for further particulars of the show.

At Wednesday's meeting Henry Gordon Coulter, local playwright, read an original one-act comedy entitled "Between Women," to illustrate the point of comparison between that writing form and the short story. About fifteen writers, many of them from Los Angeles and Pasadena, were present. The class will be continued.

Forum Will Hear Youths Attitude On Problems Of Life

What is youth's answer to the vital economic, social and religious problems confronting the world today? Whatever the answer, a cross section of it will be given those who attend the Sierra Madre Forum in the City Hall Tuesday night, April 2.

At this unusual meeting six local young men and young women, headed by Miss Elizabeth Morgridge, will enter into a controversial discussion of National and international questions. Herbert Wennerberg, Tyler Thompson, Weston Senour, Dorothy Handy, Alan Thompson and Miss Morgridge will speak.

"What is Capitalism" is the subject of a talk to be given at the Forum April 9 by Professor Graham A. Laing, M.A., of Cal Tech, according to Dean Arnold G. Bode, Forum president.

every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the same place.

Henry Ivins Hawxhurst announces that enrollments are still being taken for his art classes held every Monday and Thursday evenings at 7:30 o'clock in the Old Barn studio of the Art League. Pupils are given solid groundwork in the fundamentals of art, such as tonal values and construction, and are gradually worked up through still life to live model drawing. Charcoal and pencil work precedes color instruction, and all materials are now furnished free of charge through the E.E.P., under which the Municipal Art League now functions.

Last night from 7 to 9 the initial meeting of a group interested in Chinese history took place in the public school under the supervision of Clark Phillips, and Monday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. a sewing class is to be started in the school by Mrs. K. L. Carleton. Richard K. Knost's music theory classes are continuing every Monday evening at the same location.

Following is a schedule of classes not previously publicized. Unless otherwise noted the place of meeting is at the public schoolhouse.

Edith Kenny conducts story telling sessions Wednesdays from noon to 1 p.m. and from 2:30 to 4; Fridays from 12 to 1, and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 3:30.

PEN SLANTS

By John Copeland

HANDS are not, as popularly supposed, the most important feature distinguishing man from the purportedly lower types of animal. Besides they're not particularly peculiar to us; even a monkey can thumb his nose and peel bananas.

Nope, the best thing we've got to brag about is our funnybone, politely known as our sense of humor. Yet how many people know it? Most of us have a strictly specialized comic reaction, attuned to our conceit. We laugh only when somebody else has become momentarily ridiculous. Very few of us are able to appreciate our own grotesqueries, chuckle at our own deficiencies, grin when someone sticks a pin into our pet bubbles.

The funny thing is that we can usually turn the tables on most any situation with a polite smile or a not so polite guffaw, as occasion demands.

Regardless of the sorrow this causes childish hearts it must be broadcast that 1922 pennies aren't worth any more than the copper they're made of. With the depression on, maybe they're not even worth that.

All the kids in the country, it seems, have been hopped up over a rumor that Henry Ford was giving cars away in exchange for coppers, '22 vintage. But the Treasury Department dashed cold water by the statement that there're over seven million of these coins in circulation, instead of only 22, as reported.

Suspicious, but Friday there was an explosion somewhere in the vicinity of the City Hall. It hasn't been found out yet just what the noise was, but it sounded like a lot of something compressed into a little space suddenly let loose with a helluva wallop. Could it have been a political rocket cutting loose prematurely?

Recommended for a stormy evening in front of the fire: Mary Roberts Rinehart's "Crime Book," which contains such fancy chills as "The Red Lamp," "The Afterhouse" and such. If you've skipped them in the magazines, the present collection should be a treat.

For a quietly handled, unballooned book dealing in a rather quasi-serious manner with the depression, "A Home on a Street" is interesting reading. One of its chief distinctions is that no solution is offered to the economic problem presented. Which is certainly a distinction in these days of amateur economists behind every typewriter.

Aside from an occasional remark about the Bay Meadows meeting, we swear not to write another word about horse racing. After all, we don't want to make Mr. Runyon or Mr. Hemingway sore by cutting into their racket too much, and we don't want to make you sore by being overly mono-subjective—a little adjective or whatyoucallit coined on the spot.

But before this promise goes into effect . . .

Artists Here May Compete In Festival

All Branches Of Arts To Be Included At Southern California Contest

Sierra Madre artists, in all artistic fields, wishing to compete in the Southern California Festival of the Allied Arts must enter their registrations by Saturday, April 6, according to Mrs. M. R. Englander, local contest chairman. Monday a number of artists met at the studios of Ella Shepard Bush for discussion of the festival, and Miss Bush and Henry Ivins Hawxhurst and Vernon Jay Morse were chosen on a committee to disseminate information to interested parties.

Singers, musicians, dancers, painters, writers and cinematographers all are given the opportunity to display their talents in the festival, and cash prizes, scholarships, trophies and medals are offered to winners.

The purpose of the contests is to encourage talent and bring it to the attention of those able to aid in furthering the careers of the entrants. As the result of the 1934 festival, Mrs. Englander says, three winners secured motion picture contracts, 26 young artists were given scholarships, hundreds of art objects were sold and scores of winners secured paid theatrical engagements.

All contests are open to persons of all ages living anywhere. Entrants have until May 10 to prepare for contests, but a week from tomorrow is the last day to register.

Sponsored by the Women's Community Service Auxiliary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, the festival will be held from May 10 to June 1. Prospective participants may secure further information from contest headquarters, 324 Chamber of Commerce Building, Los Angeles.

In the meeting, and cleaned some six grand.

Into an automobile showroom on Colorado boulevard he walked to look at a classy sport roadster.

"I'll take that one," sezhe to the salesman. But the salesman wasn't to be fooled by any darn kid, so he told him to go peddle his pranks someplace else. The kid hauled out a pocketbook crammed to the gullet with perfectly legal tender.

A half hour later, in the Village of Saintly Souls' police station there was one auto sales person who got quite, quite red in the face.

BE KIND TO RABBITS WEEK—The County Supervisors have taken it upon themselves to see that no harm shall befall the lowly bunny; so they passed an emergency ordinance preventing the sale of young rabbitlets at Easter time. No rabbit under three pounds may be taken prematurely from the litter to decorate a fancy basket.

Cheer And Colors Selected By Children's Drama Guild; Club Song Comes Next

A group of enthusiastic members of the Children's Drama Guild held their weekly meeting in the Park House last Saturday. A new order of procedure was instituted. A very young child, noticing the flag on the wall suggested that each meeting be opened with a salute to the flag. Dona Jean Perry, whose suggestion was acted upon, received a star-award for patriotism.

A number of interesting ideas for earning money toward the fund for a children's theatre were presented. In prospect are a doughnut sale, a silver tea, and the sale of theatre tickets on a commission basis. The director reported that the results of last week's candy sale provided an amount sufficient to pay for two fine costume books for the Guild library.

The following children received awards for programs during the past week: Anna Sue Adwell, Marjorie Royce, Norma Hogan, Esther Richter, Norma Hibbs, Sylvia Colbert, Grace Jensen, Mary Lou Lovejoy, Dolores Bartold and Norman Bartold.

At the next meeting a selection of the Guild song will be made from poems submitted by Guild members. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cheyney will be the judges. Dolores Bartold was unanimously chosen song leader. Anna Sue Ad-well and Betty Joe Adams, guest artists. The program showed executive ability. The theme was a modern song review with an original tap dance.

The idea was received with a roar of appreciation. Four cheer leaders were appointed to serve alternately at the weekly meetings, Anna Sue Adwell, Dorothy Hall, Grace Jensen and Sylvia Colbert. Anna Sue Adwell was appointed Guild pianist. Following is the cheer: "Sierra Madre Drama Guild is best of all, if you want to have some fun come and join us all. Sierra Madre Drama Guild! Rah! Rah! Rah!"

Blue and gold were chosen for Guild colors and pom poms will be used when cheer is given. Sylvia Colbert will present the program at next Saturday's meeting. The Director of the Guild spoke on Drama for children and her guild work before the Pomora Writers' Club, yesterday.

JAYHAWKERS TO PICNIC—Kansans in California will hold a great picnic reunion, all day, Saturday, April 6th, in Sycamore Grove Park. The program will open about 2 o'clock; music, brief talks. All the tourists from the old home state will be made welcome.

Chevrolet trucks handle tough hauling jobs day after day at small operating cost, because they are built to Chevrolet's own high standards of quality in every part. The powerful six-cylinder valve-in-head engines are truck motors, especially designed to give sustained pulling power and to keep on working under the hard punishment of road and load. Features that assure stamina and long life are evident in every detail of the precision-engineered chassis. ## IN YOUR GARDEN

PLANTING PERENNIALS UNDER TREES; IN SHADE

By Jessie Ward Russell
Landscape Gardener

COLUMBINES planted under trees or where it is shady will last for years and each year the clumps will be stronger and produce more flowers. They should be fertilized each year and if they become crowded should be taken up and divided and set further apart. This is the season to divide Columbine as they are just putting out their new growth. Columbine are produced in many colors now, ranging from all pastel shades to deep purple.

Michaelmas Daisies will grow with little care and increase rapidly, making large clumps. The bright lavender variety blends in well with almost any planting. These plants are really perennial asters, although they resemble small clusters of daisies.

Ageratum is another blue flower that blends into about any color scheme. The new dwarf, compact growing Ageratums are covered with fluffy blue ball-like blossoms all the time. They are low growing, so should be planted in front of the taller growing plants.

Lobelia is low-growing, too, and is a deep blue, very valuable for its bright color in shady places. It combines especially well with red or pink Begonias.

Begonias of the bedding types, in either red or pink shades, are one of the best plants for the shady spot under a tree. They bloom just about all the time, unless the winter is too cold for them.

Agatha, or Blue Daisy, is a compact dwarf plant that is covered with small light blue daisies during the winter months.

Sweet William will thrive in the shade and the clumps grow stronger each year. They should be divided when they become crowded.

Digitalis or Foxgloves are one of the stateliest flowers we grow. They should be planted in the background for the flower stalks sometimes reach four to six feet in height.

Canterbury Bells also grow with tall flower stalks. They do not always flower the first year they are set out, but are so gay when they do bloom, they are worth waiting for.

All the above plants will grow in the sun also but they prefer a little shade.

Crown City Cuts In On The Racing Cake

Pasadena collected $1150 on the races Monday without risking a dollar, when the Crown City police raided a downtown "bookie" establishment and a court hearing was held at which nobody appeared.

A hundred and ten persons were arrested, and forced to post $10 bail. All of the money was ordered forfeited by Police Judge Newell when none of the asserted bookies or gamblers showed up at the hearing. Benny Gordon, alleged proprietor, forfeited $50 bail.

SOUTHERN CLUB ADMITS BEAUTIFUL GIRLS, ASKS FOR SIERRA MADRE HORSE

Lynne Farman's Palamino Coveted By Georgians For Fete Queen's Mount

"El Valador," princely stepping palamino on which Miss Lynne Farman rode at the head of the rose tournament on New Year's day, is today the most sought-after horse in Georgia!

The south, famed for beautiful women and thoroughbred horses, has proved itself too proud to admit that California may have it beaten in the former, but—well, they just don't seem to have anything that can quite match up to Western palaminos below the Mason-Dixon line.

Georgia's famed Cross Country Riding club, of Augusta, this week communicated with the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce, stating that publication of a photograph of Miss Farman and her horse in the Atlanta Constitution has "almost broken up the club."

Soon, it seems, the riding club will sponsor its 140th annual field day, and they intend to have a Queen who will as nearly as possible duplicate Miss Farman.

"Miss Farman is very beautiful but we did find a local girl of almost equal beauty. We had her costume copied exactly for our queen, and then we tried to find a horse the equal of 'El Valador', but nowhere in Georgia could we find one," wrote F. T.

A. L. A. Activities

UNIT 297 is invited to attend the first birthday party of (the baby unit) Wilmar, on April 3rd. We are asked to leave our troubles at home and dress as kids. After the short business meeting is adjourned, everyone will go to the little red school house. Bring your own sandwiches and at recess birthday cake and coffee will be served.

The Child Welfare committee is busy on plans for April. A word of advice—brush up on ye old spelling book words—you will have occasion to display your ability at the big time we are planning for April. Watch THE NEWS, and this column.

The eighteenth district is having the annual dessert bridge at 1 p.m. tomorrow (March 30), in Arcadia Club House.

Friday, April 5th is County Council in Los Angeles.

The chop suey dinner was a very good "feed." The doorkeeper dressed in Chinese costume as was our president. Everyone seemed content to leisurely wind their way home afterwards with that feeling of well being which comes after an enjoyable, quiet dinner. Now we are resting up to renew our activities and concentrate on Child Welfare work during April. The rehearsals are going on regularly with the usual task of lessening those lines.

A.L.A. JUNIOR NEWS
Regular meeting Saturday, April 6th at two o'clock in City Hall basement. Please plan to attend.

A generous check has just been received by Ralph Cheyney as a prize from "Bozart and Contemporary Verse," for the poem in a recent issue voted most popular by its readers throughout the country. This magazine is the largest and second oldest poetry magazine in the South with contributors from many countries. The prize-winning poem is "Moths in the Garden of Night." This prize is the fourth won by Mr. Cheyney during the year.

Ready For The Sports Show

GUY KIBBIE

Not made up for the part—He will really take part in the events at the Western Sports Show at the Shrine Auditorium from March 31 until April 6. Participation by Boy Scouts, U. S. Forestry, Izak Walton League and many of the leading sports groups and organizations will make this one of the outstanding Southland events.

tural condition, and then we will have to find something else to worry over.

Many cars entered Sierra Madre via Central avenue last Sunday, all on their way to see the Wistaria Vine. It was necessary to call on more men for the parking lot in the middle of the afternoon. Roy Walsworth, who has been somewhat under the weather for several weeks, was able to answer the call. There has been no official announcement about a wedding soon, but when a fellow starts out early on Sunday morning to meet his best girl, it looks as tho' she is using her influence to get him to church or somewhere, so don't be surprised if 'Tex' Shoemaker should be putting in a three day notice to the license bureau.

Lowdown On Mail Is Given

Carriers Pack Plenty, Postmaster Reveals In Postal Survey Here

Each of Sierra Madre's four pedestrian mail carriers hikes in the neighborhood of seven miles a day in his line of duty, and there's an average of 3,708 pieces of mail delivered daily, according to the statistics gathered by Postmaster R. O. Caulkin during his semi-annual postal survey here.

As there's mail delivered to 1355 patrons, it figures that everyone of Uncle Sam's regular customers gets two and a fraction letters per day. The fraction may consist of postcards and fake sale offers.

The weight of all daily mail averages 370 pounds, exclusive of parcel post—and there's 28 pieces of parcel post distributed. In the postoffice 450 pieces go into boxes every day. There are 5.7 miles covered by the automobile postmen in the canyon and Churchill Road routes, not counting the distances traveled up and down the hills.

Think of what the postage stamp inventor started.

Place Electric Ranges Within Reach Of Nearly Every Housewife

The most attractive opportunities ever offered for the purchase of electric ranges are extended to Southern California housewives during the intensive sales campaign now in progress in territory served by the Southern California Edison Company, according to Fred Schwartz, manager in the Sierra Madre-Monrovia district. Local electrical dealers are showing a fine line of electric ranges and are co-operating fully in the campaign, which is conducted for a limited time only.

"Several features of this campaign combine to make its duration the most advantageous time to purchase an electric range," Mr. Schwartz stated. "The most important is the new monthly payment plan, which is the most liberal ever offered. No down payment is necessary and the housewife uses her range in her home for 30 days before she makes the first payment. Monthly terms are arranged in payments as low as 10c a day, which has been adopted as the slogan of the sales movement. These convenient terms make it possible for every family, even the one of the most modest means, to enjoy the numerous advantages of cooking electrically. The low prices now in effect on all models of electric ranges and the free installation in most homes are further reasons why purchase is especially expedient during this campaign."

"The reduced electrical rate which is put into effect with use of an electric range is another reason why housewives are interested in its purchase now. This lower rate, the domestic whole-sale rate, applies to all uses of electricity in the home—not only for cooking but also for lighting, heating, refrigeration, and all the other applications of electricity to increase the comfort of home life. The Edison Company is enabled to offer this reduced rate due to the prospective addition of Boulder Dam power to the company's own reserve generating capacity, which makes the latter immediately available to every home under these advantageous conditions. When both an electric range and electric water heater are used, an even lower electrical rate is secured for all domestic uses."

"All of these reasons for buying an electric range during the present campaign are predicated on the many pleasures of cooking with a modern electric range—its beauty, speed, convenience, automatic accuracy, simplicity, safety, cleanliness and coolness. "Newspaper advertising is forming the backbone of the campaign. Through newspaper space the Edison Company is setting forth the major reasons why the all-electric kitchen is beautiful, convenient and economical. Purchase of an electric range, the most important step toward the all-electric kitchen, is made so easy during the present campaign that many housewives are finding it possible to bring to realization their long-cherished desire for a modern electric range."

CCC Presents Opportunity

Room For 200 Youths In Corps, As Employment Thins Relief Ranks

Opportunity for employment in the CCC Camps is open now to 2000 young men between the ages of 18 and 25 in Los Angeles County, according to Warren Scott, district enrollment officer. New registration offices were opened this week in the Los Angeles County Relief Administration's quarters at 1235 East Ninth street in Los Angeles.

Monday is the deadline on CCC activity under present legislation, but pending Congressional action on the work relief bill it is expected that emergency measures will carry the corps until funds are allocated.

Nineteen youths were honored at Fort MacArthur this week, when they were presented honorable discharges with superior rating. Certificates of special ability stamp the receiver as one of high character, industry, ability and initiative, according to Lieutenant-Colonel Homer R. Oldfield, who made the presentations. Fifty-one boys were similarly honored, but were unable to be present at the ceremonies.

Newest Stationery Enhances Charm Of Present Day Bride

Very little change occurs in Wedding Stationery from year to year and generation to generation but, as in every other social convention, styles come and go. There are subtle changes, known to the initiate, which mark stationery as modern and sophisticated, or otherwise.

The bride-to-be may accent her individuality in the matter of Wedding Stationery and yet comply with the strictest of social conventions.

Now, as always, the workmanship must be exquisite. The cards and other paper stock must be of just the right texture and color. Ivory is the preferred shade for Wedding Invitations and Announcements this season. White will continue to be used, as it has been for generations, but a majority of the season's Wedding Invitations, Marriage Announcements and other Social Forms will be on Ivory stock. At the Sierra Madre News office, the newest styles may be inspected without obligation.

The more than 200 persons who were present at the meeting were invited to visit the Home here, at 647 Manzanita avenue, any afternoon but Monday.

Newly elected officers include Mrs. Frederick Sedding, president; Mrs. J. S. Amundsen, first vice-president; Mrs. E. M. Holt, second vice-president; Mrs. E. MacArthur, recording secretary; Mrs. J. Worrel, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Edgar C. Bridgeman, treasurer. Mrs. W. R. Humphries, of Sierra Madre, was elected to the board of directors.

SHORT RACE PROGRAM AT ASCOT SPEEDWAY

The program of short races which was run at the Legion Ascot Speedway five weeks ago will be repeated next Sunday when two 25-lap races, a 50-lap race, the two-lap helmet dash for the two fastest qualifying cars and a 15-lap consolation race will be staged.

The previous card proved one of the most popular to be run at the local speedway in months, exceptionally fast time and close finishes being the rule. It was the 50-lap race which established Harris Insinger as one of the outstanding drivers at the local track.

Each Ascot program is producing tougher competition than the preceding card. More fast cars are being tuned up and now the drivers are pointing to the 500-lap race which will be run over the five-eighths mile oval May 5. That race will be the longest ever run over a short track and with one exception the longest ever run outside the Indianapolis speedway. The total distance will be 312.5 miles and will require around four and a half hours of driving. The cars will be one-man jobs, but relief drivers will be permitted.

ART League students on Monday enjoyed their first material proof that they are under the protective wing of the Emergency Educational Program when they found awaiting them material "as free as air" with which to work. As yet all of our supplies have not arrived—drawing board easels, and a few other things, especially, well, best not say anything about this just yet, but we have taken the matter up with Miss Catherine Lofstedt and she promises to give the matter her most serious consideration and with her dynamic personality at work in behalf of our art students, we are mighty sanguine as to the success of her efforts.

It is interesting to learn that among the several dozen programs under the supervision of Miss Lofstedt that the instruction of fundamental work in the fine art abides, for the entire district, in our city—and there is a reason for this. Most of these emergency educational classes have been of a mushroom growth and consequently lacking in the coordination that comes only from experience. Before listing the Art League among her big family Miss Lofstedt paid us a visit and confessed she liked the Old Barn Studio—the sincere work being done by the students and everything. Miss Lofstedt saw in the League not a newly born babe, not out of its swaddling clothes, but a husky youngster nearly two years old, that had outgrown the colic and frequent changes, characteristic of most growing things during that period.

We have never felt more encouraged over the future of the League than we do this very moment and most of you know that means a lot to us.

We had a pleasant surprise last Monday when Mrs. Nancy Bowen, one of Miss Lofstedt's assistants, visited the classes. . . . She, too, was most generous in her praise of what the League is doing.

SAILOR WILL TELL ABOUT SHIPWRECKS

Navy and escaped with his life in a number of shipwrecks in mid-ocean, will tell of his experiences and show a series of stereopticon life size pictures, beginning this Sunday, March 31, at the Four-square Gospel church, 191 West Central avenue at 7:30 p. m. April 3 and 5 are the dates for the other lectures. No charge is being made and everyone in the community is welcome.

AMERICANISM
LOCAL MEETING

Dr. Thomas E. Elson, principal at the Hamilton High School in Los Angeles, was the principal speaker on the Sierra Madre American Democracy Club's program at the City Hall last night. Dr. Elson spoke on "Americanism," a subject on which he has long been considered authoritative in light of his numerous anti-radical lectures. He was followed by John A. Kiss, who chose as his subject, "Legislation and What It Means to You."

Mrs. May Barlow, entertainment chairman of the organization, arranged a musical program of old and new melodies which included Richard Hawks, banjo player; Roy Edwards who played the piano accordion and Dave Buchanan, violinist.

John P. Schaefer, club president, this week confirmed the appointment of Gale Williams as 4th Precinct captain, and announced that Mrs. R. L. Kruger and Mrs. W. J. Schiltz will assist Mrs. Barlow on the entertainment committee. Lee Shippey and Hamilton Cotton, chairman of the State parent organization of the American Democracy, have been elected to honorary membership here.

Growers Petition
For Lemon Pro-rate

The California lemon industry was well on its way to a prorated program under the California Prorate Act today when petitions signed by over two thirds of the growers and 8 per cent of the 1934 production were dispatched to Sacramento for filing with the prorate commission tomorrow.

"This petition is the voluntary expression of the actual growers as to the urgent need for control and their belief that the state prorate act can aid their industry as it has several others under similar surplus conditions," said Paul S. Armstrong, general manager, California Fruit Growers Exchange. "It is expected that the prorate can begin operation soon after the formal hearing which will be held within the next two weeks and that improvement in lemon prices and equitable sharing of the surplus by all growers will result."

AT LYRIC THEATRE

Two features are being shown this evening and Saturday at the Lyric Theatre, East Foothill Boulevard, Monrovia. George Arliss in the "Iron Duke," will furnish entertainment for the whole family, and to complete the double billing is "Society Doctor," starring Chester Morris and Robert Taylor.

Coming Sunday for a four day run is Edward G. Robinson in "The Whole Town's Talking," and Janet Gaynor and Warner Baxter in "One More Spring."

Borax or soda dissolved in water is recommended for cleaning the interior of your electric refrigerator.

Home efficiency is the sum total of a large number of little ways to get more done with less work.

A sofa pillow cover slipped on a coat hanger with the ends folded over and sewed makes a fine laundry bag to hang up in the clothes closet to receive soiled hosiery, undies and handkerchiefs.

Use borax or soda dissolved in water to clean the interior of your electric refrigerator. Soap should not be used because it forms a film which will absorb odors.

Prepare muffins batter the night before, pour into pans, cover with waxed paper and store in the electric refrigerator to save time in the morning. If you have an automatic electric range, set the timer to turn on fifteen minutes before you get up and it will be ready for the muffins when you reach the kitchen.

Evaporated milk which has been heated in the can in boiling water (five minutes for small can and ten minutes for large can), chilled and stored in the refrigerator will tide over an emergency for whipped cream.

When jam becomes hard and sugary before it is used up, place it in a moderate electric range oven until the sugar melts. When cool, the jam is almost as good as when it was first made.

A steady upturn in business, with industrial production during January and the first half of February the highest for the period since 1930, was reported by the Federal Reserve Board in its monthly analysis. All reports on retail trade for the last few months have shown the same upward trend, with indications that if the boat is not rocked the Nation will soon approach normalcy.

The Board's seasonally adjusted index showed industrial production for January at 90 per cent of the 1923-25 average, and incomplete reports indicated the level was being maintained by most lines in February.

POTATOES $855,065.00

LETTUCE $736,232.00

The millions of dollars your Safeway grocers spend for food goes largely to farmers of our own State of California. In twelve months, for instance, your Safeway grocer spent $1,073,832 for California tomatoes alone. Over $800,000 for California potatoes, another $750,000 for California beans.

And actually $736,232 for California-grown lettuce. Safeway money stays home, helps
California's prosperity. That's a policy here.
Over 46 million dollars worth of products were bought from Californians in these 12 months to help promote the prosperity of the State.
